Theme— The Mass

The Resurrection of the Lord dominates our celebration in these days of Eastertide. Today's liturgy provides an example of the transforming power of the resurrection. Peter's threefold confession of faith reverses his threefold denial of Jesus during the passion. Jesus' forgiveness of his disciple here is intended to assure disciples of every age of his forgiveness.

Reflection

The Table

The chosen ones prepare to fly,
The promise shines in every eye,
'No time for feasts, unleavened bread,
And stand to eat', the leaders said.
'Bear staff in hand, and stay awake.
Let Israel Pharaoh's Land forsake'.

An upper room, a table plain,
'If you would heaven's table gain,
Now take this cup, the broken bread,
And share this supper', Jesus said.
'And if you would your love renew
Then do as I have done for you'.
Our lives are full of rush and fuss,
Of 'tie your laces', 'catch the bus',
Of wondering, 'did I pay that bill?'
A thousand things to do and still,
We show our love as best we're able
When sitting round the kitchen table.
