Mass Theme— Téama Aifrinn

To remember our beloved dead in the presence of God is wholesome and it is natural to remember them in love and thanksgiving. We thanks God for the gifts bestowed on us through tem—signs of his grave and presence. We entrust our beloved to the love and mercy of God because, even though we do not grieve as those who have no hope (1 Th 4:13), to remember the dead is *holy and devout (*2 Mac 12:45). All they have meant for us is not lost forever, for God—the God of the living—is their life now and always.

Reflection-Machnamh

LITANY OF REMEMBRANCE

In the rising of the sun
And its going down,
We remember them.
In the blowing of the wind
And in the chill of winter,
We remember them.
In the blueness of the sky
And in the warmth of summer,
We remember them.
In the rustling of the leaves
And in the beauty of autumn,
We remember them.
When we are lost
And sick at heart,
We remember them.
When we have joys
We yearn to share,
We remember them.
So long as we live,
They too shall live,
For we remember them.
