Theme— The Mass

'The Kingdom of God' is a term which we frequently meet in Luke's gospel. It is a metaphor used by Jesus to refer to God's reign in the world being accepted by humankind. The kingdom is not identical with the Church. Wherever the values, which Jesus lived and preached, are operating, even though the Church may not be established in that place, the Kingdom is already there.

Reflection

Harvest Reflection

Thanks to our mother the earth, which sustains us;
Thanks to the rivers and streams and their water;
Thanks to the corn and the grain fields that feed us;
Thanks to the herbs which protect us from illness;
Thanks to the wind and the rain for their cleansing;
Thanks to the bushes and the trees and their fruiting;
Thanks to the moon and the stars in the darkness;
Thanks to the sun and his eyes that look earthward;
Thank the Great Spirit for all of his goodness
