Theme— The Mass

Today the Church celebrates that point in Jesus' life when he went public; so to speak. He began to reveal who he was. There is another revelation in today's liturgy. It is that God is Trinity. At his baptism when Jesus the Son came up out of the water the Spirit descended on him and the voice of the Father declared that Jesus was his Son.

Reflection

Sermons in Snowdrops

Wouldn't you think you were clever if you found that you could make something as perfect as a snowdrop?

Now the white buds break-opening their petals, forming bells that sway and swing.

Wouldn't you think you were smart if you could make such a lovely thing?

Yet they come back every year – the same yet ever new.

It always thrills you when the first green points come thrusting through—

but do you see them

as the working of a miracle-proof of

One who loves the world and makes it beautiful?

Things Devine are shown to us in little ways expressed-messages from realms of Spirit: hope made manifest.
