Mass Theme - Téama Aifrinne

What made Israel unique in the eyes of its prophets was the covenant between her and God. It was the covenant which bound the Israelites and God together. This covenant had vertical as well as horizontal dimensions. By the former they were to worship the LORD alone, and by the latter they were to have particular concern for the marginalized in their society. These were identified above all strangers, the widows and the orphans.

Reflection—Ailachnamh

THE WAY TO GOD

If my days were untroubled and my heart always light, would I seek that fair land where there is no night?
 If I never grew weary with the weight of my load, would I search for God's Peace at the end of the road?
 If I never knew sickness and never felt pain, would I reach for a hand to help and sustain?
 If I walked not with sorrow and lived without loss, would my soul seek sweet solace at the foot of the cross?
 If all I desired was mine day by day would I kneel before God and earnestly pray?
 If God sent no "winter" to freeze me with fear, would I yearn for the warmth of "spring" every year?
 I ask myself this and the answer is plain — if my life were all pleasure and I never knew pain, I'd seek God less often and need Him much less, for God's sought more often in times of distress.
 And no one knows God or sees Him as plain as those who have met Him on "The Pathway of Pain".
