Theme— The Mass

In the Hebrew Scriptures which we sometimes call the Old Testament, the personal name for God is Yahweh. It was considered too holy to be pronounced. It could be written but never spoken. When speaking or reading from the scriptures the speaker would replace it with 'the LORD'. We can take it that this is the practice which Jesus himself would have grown up with too.

Reflection

NEVER REST CONTENT

Be contented with your life,
but not with how you live.

Never rest content with what you do and what you give.

Always go on trying
to improve on yesterday
brightening the path
for someone else along the way.

Be happy and be satisfied
with what you now possess
but never with yourself.

Be ever ready to confess
your faults and failings.
Grumble less and do a little more
to make yourself a nicer person
than you were before.

Do not be too sure that
all is right and well with you.
Keep on checking up
on all you think and say and do.

Be contented even though
you've found no lucky star.
Be content with what you have,
but not with what you are.

PATIENCE STRONG
