Theme— The Mass

What made Israel unique in the eyes of its prophets was the covenant between her and God. It was the covenant rather than any ties of race or neighbourliness which bound the Israelites together. The covenant had vertical as well as horizontal responsibilities. By the former they were to worship the LORD alone. By the latter they were to have particular concern for the marginalised in their society. These were identified above all as the stranger, the widow and the orphan.

Reflection

God's Loving Hands

The beauty of the daffodils in beds of snowy white
The patter of a gentle rain
A song of sheer delight.

The freshness of the ocean breeze
As it sweeps across the land
Can there be doubt this would exist
Without God's loving hand.

The song of a canary
With such a pleasant tune
The wondrous smell of springtime
With field that are in bloom
The birds that soar up in the sky
All creatures on this land
No doubt that this could ever be
Without God's loving hand.

So thank Him without measure
For his blessings showered down
That fill our lives with pleasure
'Til at last we're homeward bound.

Anon.
