Matthew's Gospel values the Hebrew Scriptures for their prophetic material. For Matthew, Jesus fulfils in his life the Old testament prophecies. He portrays Jesus as closely resembling Moses, being pursued from his infancy and now the giver of a New Law. Jesus establishes a new code of life for the people of God.

Reflection - Mlachnamh

My God Is No Stranger

God is no stranger in a faraway place,
He's as close as the wind that blows ' cross my face
It's true I can't see the wind as it blows
But I feel it around me and my heart surely knows
That God's mighty hand can be felt every minute
For there is nothing on earth that God isn't in it -
The sky and the stars, the waves and the sea,
The dew on the grass, the leaves on a tree
Are constant reminders of God and His nearness, Proclaiming His presence with crystal-like clearness.
So how could I think God was far, far away
When I feel Him beside me every hour of the day?
And I've plenty of reasons to know God's my Friend And this is one friendship that time cannot end!

On this year's 'Day for Life', NEXT Sun 21st June, we reflect on the wonder of human life from the moment of conception. We remember how the LORD Jesus Christ Himself sanctified and experienced the beginning of life in the world as an unborn child, hidden in the womb of Mary. Mary knew that she was carrying the Son of God – God and man – as soon as He was conceived. John the Baptist leapt in his mother Elizabeth's womb when Mary greeted her. Our Lady treasured Our Lord in her heart and womb until His birth. To read the full bishops' message visit www.councilforlife.ie
