Theme— The Mass

At the Last Supper, Jesus announces and promises the Holy Spirit to the disciples. He calls the Spirit 'the paraclete', literally 'the one who is called to be at your side'. Sometimes the word is translated as 'consoler'. What greater consolation can anyone give than the consolation of their presence through thick and thin.

Reflection

Consider the Lilies

Consider the lilies, the ocean and sky,
Magnolias in moonlight, geese flying by...
Consider the seasons, summer and spring,
With lilacs and roses, and robins to sing.
Consider the mountains covered with snow,
The gold leaves of autumn falling below...
Consider orange blossoms filling the air
With magical moments we always will share.

Consider the stars we never have seen,
The glory of Easter when everything's green...
Consider the tides; they come and they go,
And man cannot change the ebb and the flow.
Consider the sunrise, the birth of each day,
The passing of time, for nothing can stay...
Consider the lilies in beauty arrayed,
For each is a treasure the Master has made!

Prayer at a Child's First Communion

Lord Jesus Christ, in the Sacrament of the Eucharist You left us the outstanding manifestation of your limitless love for us.

Thank You for giving our child the opportunity to experience this love in receiving the Sacrament for the first time. May your Eucharist presence keep him/her ever free from sin, fortified in faith, pervaded by love for God and neighbour, and fruitful in virtue, that he/she may continue to receive You throughout life and attain final union with You at death. Amen
