Theme— The Mass

Though originally not part of the Eucharistic Prayer, the Sanctus, or 'Holy, holy, holy Lord', is sung after the preface. It contains echoes of the account of the call of the prophet Isaiah and of the vision of John in the fourth chapter of the Book of Revelation. It is a declaration of God's holiness. God's otherness. All creation is united in heaven and on earth in proclaiming this. It is a high point in the Eucharistic Prayer and this is made clear when it is sung.

Reflection

Day by Day

I'm disenchanted now that Summer
 Has returned to Fall,
 Than I realise that its beauty
 Is the best of all.

Then when Autumn disappears
 To Winter's silver haze,
 I miss the paintbrush of God's hand
 That made these rainbow days.

Then suddenly it's Spring again
 A different kind of hue,
 When colours burst from the ground
 In moods of joy and blue.

When Summer once again appears
 I'm so thankful, and so gay
 That God had shared His all with me
 His beauty, day by day.

The Seasons, Oh how wonderful!
 They give each soul a lift,
 How much my God must love me
 To give me such a gift.
