Theme— The Mass

Jesus had the gift of saying things directly and plainly, with a power to penetrate all our defences and lead us to a new awareness. Today's message puts before us the paradox of the Gospel: we gain life by letting go of it. If I put my happiness, my being loved, at the centre of my life, then I will surely fail, even though to be loved and to be happy are really important. If on the other hand, I put the happiness of others first and love them unconditionally, then I too will know unselfish love and deep happiness. This is the very insight and wisdom that Jesus puts before us as the key not just to love but to life and within that, the key to authentic discipleship precisely as a way of life.

Reflection

Back to School Blessing

Dear Heavenly Father,

For all the children returning to school, send your Holy Spirit as their guide and protector. Keep them free from danger and unnecessary harm, Put our sons and daughters in the right place at the right time, to receive your grace.

Let them learn and grow strong.

May the presence of your Spirit fill their hearts.

Help us to mature as parents and caregivers.

Bless every family, oh Lord.

We entrust our children to you, Dear God.

Since from the beginning, they are yours to keep.

In the name of the greatest

Son of all, Jesus Christ. Amen
