Theme— The Alass

Sometimes the joy of the Lenten season may become obscured by the passion and death of Jesus but today's liturgy, from its very first word, reminds us once again that we are in a season of joy. Our celebration of Lent is from a post-Easter point of view. Even in these days of the impending shadow of the cross, Christ has risen. The Father has vindicated him.

Reflection

Happy Mothers Day

I wish for you the blessings of love....
Always remember that you are loved.

I hope your heart will always be warm and secure, as it is forever bound to the hearts of family and friends.

I wish for you the blessings of hope...
Always count your many blessings instead of woes;

remember that tomorrow dawns as a brilliant new day full of opportunity and dreams to come true.

I wish for you the blessings of prosperity...
May your cup never be empty;

Instead, may it overflow with the blessings of success and good fortune.

I wish for you the blessings of health...
May God bless you and keep you in His loving care and protect you every day and night.

I wish you these precious things for today and every day of your life.
