Theme—The Mass

This feast comes at Christmas, a time when families are thrown together more than usual. A sense of humour can help, as we are reminded family resemblances, both physical and personal! A sense of gratitude too is not out of place—gratefulness especially to parents who always love us. A sense of service, when we make the extra effort to be helpful and kind, would be a real Christmas gift to all the family. A sense of belonging can help us experience the love, joy and refreshment of being part of this particular family.

Reflection

The Light Beyond

When sombre clouds of steely grey
Cast shadows o'er your heart and way,
Look up, beyond the darkened sky,
Where tints of blue will soon drift by.

Look up and know that in God's plan
No sparrow falls nor, too, a man
Without his watch, without his Love.
Have faith, believe, trust Him, above.

For from the dark is born the light,
A ray of hope, a beacon bright
To warm your heart and help you through.
Rejoice and know God's there with you.

Vi B. Chevalier
